

Bar Study Loan Lenders

The Financial Aid Office at Thomas M. Cooley Law School will certify a bar loan within the terms that the lender has set. A student must also have their Senior Audit complete with the Registrar before a loan certification is processed.

Applications must be submitted to the appropriate lender on-line or through the mail to the address indicated. Once the lender receives this information, the Financial Aid Department will receive notification that an approved application has been received and is awaiting our certification.

A student can only receive disbursements up to the allowable amount approved by your lender. Loan disbursements will be mailed directly to the student NOT to the School. Funds should be used wisely as they are to help you with your Bar cost and living expenses.

We believe that this is a list of all lenders that participate in the bar loan program currently. However, it is your choice to pick any lender that you want even if they are not on this list. This list is subject to change at any time.
