

COOLEY PROFESSIONALISM COMMITMENT FOR GUEST STUDENTS: STUDY ABROAD PROGRAMS

AUSTRALIA 2012

I understand that the Australia program is a serious academic experience. I agree to participate in it in a professional manner. I will represent Cooley Law School and my home law school well and will not jeopardize the program's continuation or its approval by the American Bar Association. I will work with the program director and the local co-director to ensure a successful program. More specifically, I agree to the following:

General:

While on a foreign study program, I am a representative of and an ambassador for Cooley Law School and my home law school. I have an obligation to represent the schools well, to our hosts at Monash, to faculty members and students from other schools, and to the legal and social communities in Australia. I agree at all times to conduct myself in a professional manner, through my conduct, dress, and attitude. I understand that I am subject to and will abide by all applicable provisions of the Thomas M. Cooley Student Policy Manual.

Attendance:

I understand that Cooley's regular attendance policy applies to the program, and I will comply with it.

Housing:

I understand that Cooley has booked a block of rooms for fixed dates at fixed prices for my use in Melbourne. I further understand that it is my personal responsibility to make reservations and pay all charges. I will comply with all housing rules. Should I decide to seek other housing, I will deal with the housing provider and not the school. Cancellation and refund policies will apply.

Social and extracurricular events:

I understand that there will be several legal events. They are an integral part of the overall program and experience. I will attend every scheduled legal event and will conduct myself in a professional manner during them.
