

Disability Access Guide

THE THOMAS M. COOLEY LAW SCHOOL

DISABILITY ACCESS GUIDE

PURPOSE

The purpose of this guide is to provide access and related information to students, faculty, staff, and the general public.

PARKING

Lansing:

- Cooley Center: The closest parking to the Cooley Center can be found in the South Capitol Parking Ramp (320 South Capitol Avenue), which is immediately south of the Cooley Center. The South Capitol Parking Ramp has side-lift van accessible parking spaces.
- Library: Metered handicap parking near the Library can be found on South Washington Square directly across the street from the library. This parking space is not side-lift van accessible. Meters are enforced from 8:00 a.m. – 6:00 p.m., Monday through Friday. There are handicap parking spaces in the lot next to the library. This lot is for staff with permits until 5:30 p.m. on weekdays. This lot has side-lift van accessible spaces.
- Temple Building: The closest handicap parking available is the surface parking lot next to the Temple building. There is also metered street parking on South Capitol Avenue outside the Temple Building. In addition, there is a parking ramp directly across the street from the Temple Building (Tower Parking) which can be accessed either through Allegan or South Capitol Avenue. Upon arrival at the Temple Building, use the side elevator at the south end of the front stairs to access the first floor of the building.

Grand Rapids:

- There is handicap parking in Area Lot 5 (surface parking) at 111 Ionia Street, one block west of Cooley's campus.
- The closest available parking is the City parking ramp immediately south of Cooley's campus on Commerce Avenue. This parking ramp accepts cash or credit card for payment.
- There is also metered street parking in front of Cooley's campus on Commerce Avenue.

Auburn Hills:

- Handicap spaces are available in the parking lot outside the building. Use the main entrance to enter the building.

Ann Arbor:

- Handicap parking spaces are available in the parking lot outside the building. Use the main entrance to enter the building.

Tampa Bay:

- Handicap parking spaces are available in the parking lot outside the building. Use the main entrance to enter the building.

EMERGENCY INFORMATION

Fire or other building evacuations:

- Go to the nearest stairwell or exit by following the “Exit” signs.
- Individuals with mobility difficulties should remain in the stairwell until emergency personnel arrive.
- Notify your professor or the Floor Marshal that you will remain in the stairwell. Your professor or the Floor Marshal will report your location to the emergency control center.

Tornado or storm shelter warning:

- Go to the nearest storm shelter. Look for rooms and areas with a “Severe Weather Shelter Area” sign.
- Stay in the shelter area until the “all clear” signal is given.

EXAM AND OTHER ACCOMMODATIONS

It is Cooley’s policy to provide appropriate academic adjustments, auxiliary aids and services, or exam modifications (which the law school commonly calls “accommodations”) to qualified students with disabilities as determined on a case-by-case basis through a meaningful interactive process that includes input from the student and that gives appropriate consideration to the student’s request.

Deadlines:

Please refer to the disability section (Appendix B) of the Cooley Student Policy Manual for information on deadlines regarding accommodation requests.

ACADEMIC RESOURCE CENTER

The Academic Resource Center provides one-on-one and small-group academic assistance, seminars, and related resources for students seeking assistance on how to deal with academic challenges of law school. Services cover multiple choice testing, essay writing, outlines, and assisting students with reading and related issues. The center has an office at each of Cooley's five campuses.

CLASSROOM ACCESS

LANSING

Classrooms at the Cooley Center

- For classrooms 301 and 401 in the Cooley Center, wheelchair accessible entrances are on the east corner of the classrooms.
- For classroom 501 in the Cooley Center, wheelchair accessible entrances are available on the southeast and southwest corner of the classroom.
- For classroom 404 in the Cooley Center, a ramp providing wheelchair access is immediately outside the classroom.
- Other classrooms are accessible through the main entrance.

Entering the Cooley Center in Inclement Weather

The southeast entrance is the closest entrance to the Cooley Center from the South Capitol parking ramp. For security purposes, this entrance has restricted access. Any request to use this entrance must be made to Ieva Inglis, Enrollment and Student Services Coordinator.

Temple Building Access

For access to the Temple Building, use the elevator to the first level. This elevator is located at the south end of the building, next to the front stairs.
