Alumni Association Vice President Bambery Grants the Distinguished Student Award for the James Iredell Class

The faculty, staff, and student body of the Thomas M. Cooley Law School gathered in the auditorium on Thursday, July 19, for the 2001 Trinity Term Honors Convocation. Alumni Association Vice President M. Carol Bambery was on hand to grant the Distinguished Student Award to a member of the graduating James Iredell Class.

Nine students were nominated for the James Iredell Class Distinguished Student Award. The students furnished a variety of information, including resumes and letters of reference that were reviewed by the Executive Committee. Nominees were also personally interviewed as part of the selection process.

Members of each graduating class are evaluated on the criteria of character, academic accomplishment, leadership, and extracurricular activities in the decision to grant the Distinguished Student Award.

This term's award was given to Trieu Chung Ha of the James Iredell Class. Mr. Ha plans to return to his home state of California and will sit for the February 2002 bar examination. He eventually would like to open his own general practice, specializing in Criminal Law.

Alumni Association Vice President M. Carol Bambery (Morell Class, 1985) awarded the honor to Mr. Ha. The Alumni Association is proud and pleased to give recognition to this outstanding member of the James Iredell Class and extends its best wishes for his continuing success.
