

Western Michigan University - Cooley Law School
Graduate Program (LL.M.) Program Outcomes
Corporate Law and Finance

CORPORATE LAW AND FINANCE

The Corporate Law and Finance LL.M program is designed to prepare graduates to represent corporations or other business entities. Program outcomes for the Corporate Law and Finance Program include:

#1 - KNOWLEDGE OUTCOME: Program graduates will acquire substantive knowledge of the formation, capitalization, regulation and operation of business entities.

#2 - SKILLS OUTCOME: Graduates will demonstrate the ability to apply corporate law and compliance in practice settings.

#3 - ETHICS OUTCOME: Professional responsibility and compliance will be an aspect of every course in the Corporate and Finance Law program. LL.M. graduates embrace the legal, moral, ethical, and professional responsibilities of lawyers, embodying the responsibilities of an honorable member of the profession.